OF A NEW

ANGLO-CHINESE DICTIONARY, QUARTO

BY THE REV. W. LOBSCHEID.

THIS WORK was commenced in November, 1864, and will be completed towards the end of 1868, comprising in all 2,000 large quarto pages. Much care has been bestowed on the work to render it useful, both to the Merchant and to the Student of the Chinese and English languages. Articles of Trade, Objects of Natural History, all the articles to be obtained in the Chinese Market are given with their Chinese equivalents.

The work is offered in boards. The beat Bookbinding Establishment in China being con nected with this Office, parties desirons of baving their copies strongly or elegantly bound will please to intimate the same.

Missionaries supplied at Trade Price.

Daily Press Office, Hongkong.

NOTICE.

CHIANG-TING-CHUN and others baving intimated their intention to establish a Rice market in the west gate of Toong-koochix, at Kook-fow, Canton, the District Magistrate addressed the Superintendent of Harbours on the subject, who, after making enquiries, made a report in favour of the proposed project. It therefore has received the countenance of the authorities, and a notification has been issued.

This will be a step of great importance in the interest of rice dealers, and will be a great boon to the public at large. Rice merchants not being able in future to monopolize the trade, whilst the peoper classes can easily make purchases at moderate prices.

If 1303 Hongkong, 15th July, 1868,

This instrument has proved very useful in recent survey operations, and the services rendered by Major. Barber in this matter are (according to a Government minute promulgated in Madrael to be brought to the special notice of the Secretary of State for India.

Lord Napier of Magdala, in replying to the widness read to him by the City Chamberlain at the Guildhall, expressed his sense of the great value which he attacked to the honour conferred upon him by the Corporation of the largest and most distinguished cavic community in the world. He spoke with modesty of his own share in the triumph of the Abyssinian expedition, and enlogized the conduct of the troops under his command. MARRIAGE OF MULLE. PATTI.-For a time at least one of the most engaging and accomplished vocalists and notreases known to this ceneration is lost to the stage she may even be last to it altogether. Mille. Adelina Patti was on Wedesday, July 29, married to the Marquis de Caux, a French noble-uran with the Imperial Court. Long before H o'clock the Roman Catholic Church of Clapham Common, belonging to the Redemptorist.commanity, was crowded to excess, and many well-known faces connected were to be recountred there, Signor Mari , Madame Griss, Mr. Gye. Mr. Coste, Mr. Augustus Harrie, and bignor Tagliafico were among those prosent. When the ecremony had been performed by the officiating clergy, the Hon. and Very Rev. Father Plankett, assisted by the Rev. Fathers Burke and Clearey, the civil contract was signed in the vestry, the Prench Ambassador. Prince de la Tour d' Auvergue, and M. Mure acting as witnesses on on the part of the bridegroom, and the Dake f Manchester and Mr. Costs on the part of the bride. The bridesmands were Milles. Zanzy, Louisa Lauer, Maria Harris, and Rita (a daughter of Signor Mario). Mass was performed at the conclusion of the percolony; but, oddly enough, and to the disappointment of many present, not a note of music or of song was. heard throughout the entire service .- Times. ENGLISH MANUFACTURES IN CHINA.-Od celling them of Chinese having come to Mannt dalay via Theinee, and mentioning that ne this was generally conside ed as the safest and most expeditions route to Yunan,-"Yes, Yes." or said they, "but they pay beavily for a tem-

REVULTING INGUATITUDE - A man named Binne Gonnett, agod 32, has fost been tried at the Court of Assizes of the Ain for murder. the resided at the chateau of Conzien with her husband, a gentleman well known in French literary circles, and the author of the libretto of Berlioz's opera of the Troyers, M. and Madame Ferrand had no children of their own, and had adopted the prisoner when a child two years old. He was at that time in a mendicity to asylum, his mother having been abandoned tis with a large family by her husband. The boy the soon munificated the most preverse instincts. He was expelled from several schools at which he had been placed. At the age of 18 he en-I listed in the army, and served in the Crimea: In 1856 he was condemned to a year's imprisonment for theft, and in 1850 to a second sentence of ten years for a similar offence. His a misconditet did not however, seem to have weakened the affection of Madame Ferrand for him. During his configurent she procured for him what in talgences she could, and by her intercession obtained his release in 1867. She had already made a will instituting-him her sole legatee, and wishing to prevent him from relapsing into idleness and licentiousness, took then him to reside at the chateau of Conzien. There he refused to nursue any occupation, his disorders knew no bounds, and he even threatened the lives of his benefactors when they refused to provide him with money for drink and debauchery. In May last he left the chateam for Geneva, and a fortuight later, having squandered the money he had received on his departure, he came back to Conzieu, broke into the residence at night, and, after strangling Madame Ferrand, plundered her room of all the jeweders and other articles of value he could find. He then returned to Geneva. ient- where he was arrested while endeavouring to no- dispose of some of the atolen property.
